SENIORS CHRISTMAS LUNCH

Reducing Isolation around the Holidays

Our Seniors Christmas Lunch brought festive cheer to the community, offering a warm, welcoming space for older residents to enjoy a hot meal together. The afternoon included a live choir, festive activities, and a special visit from Santa, helping to create a joyful and memorable celebration.

HELLO WINTER

A Community winter celebration!

Our Youth Hello Winter Event was a vibrant and family friendly day packed with activities, including a Makers Market, tea, coffee and cake sale, Santa's Grotto, Elf's Workshop, face painting, and live choirs performing throughout the afternoon.

Quick Highlights

60 seniors were served a warm Christmas meal

14 organisations attended to offer information and services to local residents.

100 people received safety and wellbeing packs, CO₂ alarms, food, and more

Over 300 residents attended our Hello Winter Community Engagement Event

STAY SAFE & WELL EVENT

Promoting safety, wellbeing, and winter preparedness

Our Stay Safe and Well Event focused on supporting residents with practical advice and resources to stay safe and well during the colder months. Attendees received wellbeing packs alongside friendly guidance in a welcoming community setting.

INFORMATION & NETWORKING EVENT

Connecting residents with local support services

We hosted an Exclusive Partner Session followed by a public networking event, creating space for collaboration between organisations and residents. Attendees had the opportunity to connect directly with service providers offering support across the Waltham Forest borough, strengthening pathways to help and advice.
